Neighbours views to be considered.

8.3. To receive correspondence

Confirmation of Planters donated. Clerk to liaise for delivery.
Confirmation of tree at Park Estate, Bargoed.

8.4 To approve payments and receive financial update.

All payments approved and a financial update given, including balances to date. The Clerk reminded Members of the large percentage of monies that is currently being spent within the area on events. Also that as a Town Council, they have taken on a number of events that were previously CCBC events and this has impacted heavily on finances and any balances held from previous years. Apart from precept that comes from CCBC, there is no other income stream.
Discussions took place with regards to subsidising events for residents rather than a totally free event programmes. A collection bucket was suggested at the Firework display and monies received could be put back into the events programme. Also a £2 donation at the Christmas grotto on entry to visit Santa.

RESOLVED: Clerk to apply for a permit from CCBC to allow use of collection buckets at the Firework display.

9. To receive matters arising from the clerk

9.1 Poppies – lampposts

The Clerk confirmed to Members that there was a National shortage of this particular poppy and he would do his utmost to chase as these were very difficult to obtain.

RESOLVED Members agreed expenditure for lamppost poppies throughout Bargoed.

9.2 Rent/Lease Gwent Police

Payment has been made and Gwent Police have confirmed receipt of this payment. Clerk has requested a consideration in the continuation of lease of the Town Hall as per agreement and Gwent Police have replied advising receipt of the request and have promised a decision in due course.

9.3 Christmas Tree at Park Estate.

Confirmation from CCBC of a donated tree with Bargoed Town Council to fund the cost of the Christmas lights and the costs involved in supplying the electrical supply to the location.

10 Events

10.1 Open Air Cinema – Peter Rabbit. Positive feedback from Members although the number of attendees were low. Members discussed the timing, location and perhaps reducing the showing to once a year. The Clerk reminded Members that up until now, the dates of the Open Air Cinema events were set by CCBC and discussions took place concerning a date during school holidays maybe a better option moving forward.

10.2 Fireworks. The Clerk updated Members with plans in place for the display and that extra barriers had been ordered with last year's display in mind, as there were issues around the free fairground rides and people pushing and not queuing. Members agreed to employ a SIA (Security Industry Authority) steward for the event. Members discussed the use of sparklers at the event and confirmed that it is too much of a risk. Clerk to advertise the NO USE of sparklers at the event on the flyers and posters.

10.3 Winter Fair (Light Switch on). The Vicar of St Gwladys Church has confirmed that he would love to give a few words prior to the switch on at the location. The Clerk confirmed that the stage at the event will be organised by CCBC.

10.4 Ice Rink and Grotto – Charges

RESOLVED: Expenditure approved for the purchase of selection boxes, and agreed to charge of £2 per visit.

11. Any other business raised by the members

None.

12. Date of next meeting

7th November 2018.

Signed ..... Mayor
